

MICHAEL KEAWE ANDERSON

EHCC ADVISOR

ABOUT

Keawe Anderson, is the Director of Strategic Growth and Compliance at Na Ali'i Consulting and Sales, LLC, a GovCon enterprise wholly-owned by the Nakupuna Foundation, a Native-Hawaiian Organization (NHO). He advances the growth and development of the Nakupuna Foundation companies by advising the management team about policy, culture, and contracting strategies to optimize strategy, growth, and give back. He often serves as a national-level advocate for Native economic development and GovCon small businesses who provide goods and services to Federal Agencies.

Mike is a graduate of the USAF Academy, has a master's in business administration from the University of Northern Colorado, a master's in strategic military studies from the Air University, and a master's certificate in government contracting from the George Washington University. He serves as a member of the Board of Directors for the Lu Young Fund for Children, a charity that funds programs supporting Alaska Native children; is the Treasurer for the Board of Directors for the National Organization on Fetal Alcohol Syndrome; and the Secretary for the Aquia Harbour Host Lions Club.
