

JOHNNY VIERRA

EHCC STUDENT OUTREACH COORDINATOR

ABOUT

Born and raised on O`ahu, Johnny Vierra is a 2024 graduate of Georgetown University and a young public affairs professional in Washington D.C. He grew up surrounded by a large family, spending much time in Mililani, Salt Lake, and Waimānalo. During the pandemic, in his junior year of high school, Johnny decided to watch every episode of The West Wing. From there, his journey to Washington began. Determined to see what Washington D.C. was really like, he decided to pursue an education at Georgetown.

During his time in college, Johnny became connected with E Ala E Hawaiian Cultural Center, which supports the university Hawai`i clubs in the D.C. area. Upon graduating from college, he knew there was more he wanted to learn before returning home to Honolulu. As a result, he recently started a job working for a public affairs firm. He understands how important it is to build strong cultural connections - even while away from home - and he is excited to give students the same exposure and opportunity that was given to him.
