

NALEI STEWART

EHCC ALAKA`I

ABOUT

Victoria Naleialoha Stewart takes her role as an EHCC Alaka'i very seriously. She believes that this new cultural journey will give her a greater appreciation for Native Hawaiian education and community service.

Nalei started her hula journey at age 4. She completed her Kamehameha Schools Ho'omāka'ika'i journey through attending Explorations, Ho'olauna, and Ipukukui courses, receiving valuable knowledge from respected cultural practitioners. She spent good years studying at Hālau Lōkahi under Kumu Hinaleimoana Wong-Kalu (Kumu Hina). Her experience at Hālau Lōkahi taught her to honor our ancestors and appreciate who she is as a kanaka maoli and what this kuleana entails.

Nalei is currently attending the University of Maryland Global Campus to pursue a bachelor's degree in business management. Her goal is to open an athletic facility to help youth strive for volleyball and basketball excellence.
