

KYLE MORIGUCHI

Kyle Moriguchi was born on the island of O‘ahu. He is a proud kupa (native) of Honouliuli, ‘Ewa, O‘ahu, and is the son of Alike and Phyllis Moriguchi. Kyle also has two older sisters, Shelby and Shyann. Kyle takes great pride in his culture, especially in the facets of language and music. His love for his culture has been instilled within him for his whole life, something that he accredits his Tūtū (grandmother) for first instilling within him. It wasn’t until he was accepted to Kamehameha Schools Kapālama in 2014 for his freshman year that he truly immersed himself in his culture. During his time there, he took four years of ‘Ōlelo Hawai‘i and was also a member of the highly esteemed Concert Glee Club, which catalyzed his love of Mele Hawai‘i (Hawaiian Music). Now, Kyle is currently attending the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa and is majoring in both Political Science and ‘Ōlelo Hawai‘i. Kyle loves to play Hawaiian Music with his friends and even founded a small Hawaiian music trio with two of his classmates from Kamehameha Schools called ‘Ōlauniu. Upon Kyle’s completion of his undergraduate studies, he plans on attending the William S. Richardson School of Law at the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa, with the intent of focusing on Native Hawaiian Law and Environmental Law.
